(To be revised and retyped as desired)

You are invited to join _____ efforts as we strive to provide safe, positive, good character building environments, experiences and events for officials, coaches, athletes and their families. We are pleased to introduce theBMSproject.org's no-cost, turnkey, easy to implement and maintain _____ program(s).

theBMSproject.org's programs and resources celebrate the positive aspects of sports participation. The programs contribute to assist to mitigate organizations' considerable liability risk exposure; as stakeholders are provided with alternative, suggested, more qualified resources to respond to situations and incidents that are inadvisable for your organization's lay personnel/staff's involvement.

It will only take ten-minutes to join our efforts to make sports participation better, safer and more enjoyable for all participants. Please review the attached (or insert provided link(s) <https://thebmsproject.org/start-here>) -- BMS' 1-minute and 3-minute program introduction videos.

After viewing the video(s) of your choice, if you are interested in receiving additional information regarding any or all of the described programs, simply complete the short online license application available by clicking on "START HERE!" on theBMSproject's home page. When filling out the application then click on the program(s) of interest. Upon completion submit the application. BMS will provide additional information for the programs that you identified as having interest in. You will also receive instructions how to implement the selected program(s), if you elect to move forward.

Please Note: Completing and submitting the license application WILL NOT create any commitments or obligations whatsoever -- it simply populates theBMSproject's contacts database.
